

INTRODUCTION TO THE
 OLD SCOFIELD STUDY BIBLE COURSE

Dr. C.I. Scofield (August 19, 1843 - July 24, 1921), founder of the Philadelphia School of the Bible (1914), was actually a drunken attorney who served a stretch in prison for forgery before he turned his life over to Christ. From the day of his conversion (1879) Scofield began to consume the Word of God with an attorney's penchant for facts. In time he became a highly skilled Bible teacher who recognized some very specific divisions in the Scriptures. In 1888 he wrote Rightly Dividing the Word of Truth, as a pamphlet containing 10 of these important divisions. One of them is dispensationalism, which sees a clear distinction between Gentiles, Israel and the Church and God's unique dealing with each group. This, incidentally, is the position taken by PMI and many great Bible teachers today.

The Old Scofield Bible Study Course will provide you with an opportunity to satisfy your deepest hunger for understanding how God's Word—in all its seeming complexity—fits together in a sound historical, biographical, and doctrinal setting. This is a once in a lifetime opportunity where you will dig in and rightly divide the Word of Truth by learning how to use:

Index p. 1354	Covers all the editorial matter in the Scofield Study Bible except individual Book introductions and the running Analysis of paragraphing. Subject references are indicated in parenthesis.
Dictionary of Scripture Proper Names- p. 1365	Bible references to some of the principal persons and places mentioned in Holy Scripture.
Subject Index- p. 1409	The most important topics with Scripture references.
Concordance- p. 1447	A thorough (not exhaustive) listing of thousands of Bible words and their references.
Index to Maps- p. 1607	Hundreds of important places listed in the Index and referenced to 9 full color maps.
